PG Diploma and Masters in Information Management
Course Code : PGDIM and MIM

Introduction

PGDIM and MIM programs were introduced by NILIS in 2013 to cater to the ever-growing need for professionals competent in managing information in the business setting.

Moving away from the common perception that librarianship is limited to traditional libraries, NILIS has over the years produced top quality information management professionals. The curriculum is being updated under the guidance of the experts in information management.
